

Instructional Text for “Introduction to Japanese Law” (LA275)

Contents

Social Development from Prehistoric Period to Feudalism -----	1
Prehistoric Age	1
Yamato- and Asuka Era (5. c. - 7. c. AD.): Establishment of Japanese Ancient Sate
Nara-Era (710 – 794): Introduction of Chinese State System
Backgroun of “Ritsu-Ryo System”	2
“RITSU” and “RYO”	4
A Household (726 AD.)	5
Heian-Era (794 – 1182)	6
Kamakura-Era (1182 – 1333)
Japanese Buddhism in Kamakura-Era
Ashikaga-Era (1333 - 1477) and Warring States Period (1477 – 1600)	7
Development in the Warring States Period (16.c.)
Establishment of Tokugawa Shogunate (17.c.)	8
Legislations and regulations by the Shogunate
Introduction of Confucianism	9
Financial difficulties of Warrior class and Tokugawa Shogunate (18.c.)
Splitting of peasant class into landlords and tenant farmers (18.c.)
Revolt of peasants and political confusion (19.c.)	10
Rise of a new consciousness among young warrior leaders (mid 19.c.)
Modernization process in Japan (1) – Social Restructuring – -----	11
Chronology of the Modernization Process in Japan (1)	11
Social Restructuring by Meiji government	12
(1) Family reform
(2) Confucian education
(3) National Shintoism
Modernization process in Japan (2) – Meiji Constitution – -----	13
Chronology of the Modernization Process in Japan (2)	13
Modernization (industrialization) – A Heavy Burden charged to Farmers –	14
Popular Movement for Freedom and Democracy
Establishment of Constitutional Monarchy
Fatal Error in Constitution	15
Additional Commentary to “the Constitution of the Empire of Japan” in 1889	16
Theoretical Background of the Constitution – “True Nature of the Japanese Nation”
Declaration of “Kokutai” and the Supreme Command of the Emperor
Outstanding Competence of the Emperor (and the Cabinet)	17
Limitation on the Other Competence of the Diet	18

Restriction upon Judiciary and Jurisdiction
Tremendous Restrictions upon Human Rights	19
Modernization process in Japan (3) – Codification of Civil Code –	20
Chronology of the Modernization Process in Japan (3)
Enactment of Civil Code and Other Main Codes	20
Initial Stage of the Codification Project for Civil Law by the Government	21
Second Stage: “Old Civil Code of Japan” by Boissonade	23
“Codification Dispute” in Japan	24
Third Stage: A New Revised Civil Code modeled on “ Pandect System ”
“Boissonade’s Heritage” in the Revised Civil Code	25
For Information and Reference 1
“Abstraction Principle” in German Law and Effect of Registration in Japanese Law	27
A. Separation of “Obligation Act” and “Real Fulfillment Act”
B. Independence of Effects of Both Acts (“Abstraction Principle”)
C. “Integration Principle” in Japanese Law
For Information and Reference 2
Historical Background of “ Pandect System ”	28
A. Development of Ancient Roman Law
B. Establishment of a New Roman Law Science
C. Reception of Roman law in European countries
D. Modern codification of civil law in France and Germany	29
Real Rights in Japanese Civil Code	31
Real Rights and Real Securities in the “Old Civil Code” of 1890
Real Rights and Real Securities in the “Revised Civil Code” of 1896
Historical Role of Emphyteusis	33
Superficies and Special Legislations for Protection of Rights of Lessees	35
Special Legislations on Hypothec over Assets of Company and Movable	36
Atypical Real Security Rights and Provisional Registration	37
Drafting Process of Article 415
(Compensation for Damages in Case of Non-Performance)	39
Drafting Process of Article 416
(Scope of Compensation for Damages)	28
For Information and Reference
German Approach to Non-Performance	47
The Scheme of the Articles on “Non-performance” in the BGB of 1900.....	49
Modernization process in Japan (4) – Family in Prewar Period –	51
“I-E System”, and Discrepancy between its Idea and Reality	51
I. Incompetence of Wife to Perform Juristic Acts
II. Dominant Status of “Head of Family”

III. Succession of the Patrimony	52
◇ Some Additional Comments to the Articles above
Development of Legal Protection of “ de facto marriage”	53
a) Acknowledgment of Engagement as Contract	54
b) Reform in the Field of Social Welfare Law	55
c) Acknowledgment of “ de facto marriage” as quasi-marriage
Road to War -----	56
Root of the Japanese Imperialism and Agrarian Reform	56
Fundamental Questions	57
Postwar Reforms under the Occupation
Agrarian Reform
Land Tax Reform 1871	58
Popular Movement for Freedom and Democracy (1870s -)
Limited Competence of Prime Minister	59
Initial Stage of the Imperialism
Second Stage of the Imperialism
Coincidence of Democracy and Imperialism	60
Final Stage of the Imperialism
Dessolution of the Imperialism
Postwar Policy and Constitution of 1947 -----	61
Postwar Policy by the Allied Forces in Japan	61
Supreme Goals of the Occupation Policy
Main Reform Measures for the Total Reorganization of the Japanese Society
Rapid Proceeding of Democratization towards a New Constitution	62
Current Constitution of Japan (1947)
Main Principles of the new Constitution of 1947	63
Reference 1
What does the Principle “Rule of Law” really mean in its modern sense?
Reference 2
Two Models of Judicial and Constitutional Review
Pacifism in the New Constitution of 1947 (Art. 9) and Judicial Constitutional Review
Crucial Issue 1	64
Crucial Issue 2
Crucial Issue 3
Art. 9 of the Constitution and Self-Defense-Forces -----	65
Judgment of the Supreme Court, October 8, 1950	65
Judgment of the District Court in Tokyo, March 30, 1959
Judgment of the Supreme Court, December 16, 1959
Judgment of the District Court in Sapporo, March 29, 1967	66
Judgment of the District Court in Sapporo, September 7, 1973
Judgment of the Appellate Court in Hokkaido, August 5, 1976
Judgment of the Supreme Court, September 9, 1982

Judicial Constitutional Review ----- 67

(I) Origin of Judicial Constitutional Review, European model and American model	67
(II) What is a main concern in Judicial Constitutional Review?
(III) Value-conflict between Human Rights and Public Welfare	68
Basic consideration in the “Dual Standard Doctrine”
Criteria of Constitutionality/Unconstitutionality of restrictions of Human Rights (Dual Standard Doctrine)	69
Dual Standard Doctrine and the Constitution of Japan
Topic-(A) Equal treatment under the law (Article 14 of Constitution)	70
Related Cases on Equal Treatment under the Law	71
a. Nissan Automobile Case
b. Mitsubishi Resin Case
Topic-(B) Separation of Politics and Religion (Article 20 of Constitution)	72
a. Christian in Shinto-Shrine Case
Related Cases on Separation of Politics and Religion
Topic-(C) Restriction of intellectual freedom by Legislative or Executive Powers	74
a) Restriction of Workers' Rights (Judgment of the Supreme Court on October 26, 1966)
b) Restriction of Political Activities (Judgment of the Supreme Court on November 6, 1974)
c) Censorship (Textbooks Screening Case)	75

Appendix

The Constitution of the Empire of Japan (1889)	1
Imperial Oath Sworn in the Sanctuary in the Imperial Palace (Tsuge-bumi)
Imperial Rescript on the Promulgation of the Constitution
Preamble [or Edict] (Joyu)	2
Chapter 1. The Emperor
Chapter 2. Rights and Duties of Subjects	4
Chapter 3. The Imperial Diet	5
Chapter 4. The Ministers of State and the Privy Council	6
Chapter 5. The Judicature
Chapter 6. Finance	7
Chapter 7. Supplementary Rules	8
The Constitution of Japan (1947)	9
Preamble
Chapter 1. The Emperor
Chapter 2. Renunciation of War	10
Chapter 3. Rights and Duties of the People
Chapter 4. The Diet	14
Chapter 5. The Cabinet	17
Chapter 6. Judiciary	18

Chapter 7. Finance	19
Chapter 8. Local Self-Government	20
Chapter 9. Amendments	21
Chapter 10. Supreme Law
Chapter 11. Supplementary Provisions
Treaty of Mutual Cooperation and Security between Japan and the United States of America (1960)	23
Contents of Civil Codes	24
Contents of “Old Civil Code of Japan” (1890)
Contents of “Revised Civil Code of Japan” (1896, 1898, 1947)	26
Contents of Civil Code of Germany (Original version in 1900)	28
Contents of Codes of Swiss (1907)	30
Contents of Civil and Commercial Code of Thailand (1925 ~)	31